Tutoring Experience

Over my 14 years as an English tutor, I've had the privilege of working with students from diverse educational backgrounds, supporting them through their IB, A-Level, and IGCSE curriculums. I specialise in guiding students through the complex aspects of literary analysis, essay writing, and exam preparation.

I have worked with students aiming to improve their language skills, ensuring they develop a strong foundation in both written and spoken English. Many of my students have achieved remarkable results and secured spots at top universities due to their improved confidence and skills.

My experience spans across multiple curriculums, allowing me to tailor my approach to each student's individual needs. Whether preparing for final exams or completing coursework, I strive to help students enhance their understanding of English literature and language.
