Over the past 10 years, I've had the privilege of working with students across various curriculums, focusing on IB History and A-Level History. My expertise lies in European revolutions, 20th-century wars, and political ideologies. I guide students through critical analysis and help them connect historical events to present-day contexts.

I have supported students from diverse backgrounds, tailoring lessons to their needs and helping them achieve their academic goals. Whether preparing for exams or deepening their understanding of history, I ensure each student gains the tools necessary to excel. My passion for history inspires my teaching, fostering curiosity and critical thinking in every session.
