Tutoring Experience

Over the past 7 years, I've worked with students from various educational backgrounds, focusing on IB Physics and AP Physics. I have supported them through both coursework and challenging exam preparation, ensuring they fully understand key topics such as mechanics and electromagnetism.

I've also helped students excel in A-Level and IGCSE Physics, guiding them through critical concepts and problem-solving techniques. Many of my students have successfully gone on to pursue higher education in science and engineering at leading universities in the US and around the world.
