Tutoring Experience

With a decade of tutoring experience, I've guided students in mastering the fundamentals of business and economics. My expertise spans teaching IB Business Management, where I focus on topics like organisational behaviour and strategic planning. I've also supported A-Level and IGCSE students in excelling at coursework and exams.

Having worked with students globally, I tailor my approach to meet diverse educational standards, helping learners develop a strong foundation in business concepts. Beyond tutoring, my professional background in consulting and finance adds depth to my teaching, bridging academic concepts with real-world applications.
